

ACTIVITY NUMBER	SERVICE CATEGORY	SERVICE POPULATION	DEFINITION	MAINE CARE SECTION	PROC CODE	PERFORMANCE INDICATOR	LICENSING CATEGORY
--------------------	---------------------	-----------------------	------------	--------------------------	--------------	--------------------------	-----------------------

1800 MR WAIVER

1801	Adaptive Aids W-123	Adult Mental Retardation	Devices, controls or appliances specified in the plan of care that increase abilities to perform ADL and to better control or communicate with the environment.
1802	Consultation Services W-127	Adult Mental Retardation	Services provided to assist consumer, parents, and providers in carrying out individual plans, and directed to help in the resolution of the individual's behavioral, social, mental health and related issues
1803	Crisis Intervention W- 121	Adult Mental Retardation	consultation or direct service to the individual, their family, or provider of services, to develop, monitor and reassess behavioral or other support plans. Can also include direct intervention in crisis situations.
1804	Day Habilitation Services W-110	Adult Mental Retardation	services and training that focus primarily on physical and emotional development to promote self-maintenance skills. Services are individualized, based on the person's prioritized needs, are respectful to individual choice and the person's plan for the future.

1805	Environmental Modification W-122	Adult Mental Retardation	services which assess, arrange and provide for modifications and/or improvements to the individual's living quarters to better assure accessibility, to ensure health, welfare and safety, or to enable greater independence in the home.
1806	Facilitated Communication W-128	Adult Mental Retardation	a technique for teaching individuals with severe communication impairment to access communication aids.
1807	Interpreters	Adult Mental Retardation
1808	Occupational Therapy Consult W-104	Adult Mental Retardation	Professional services by an Occupational Therapist to assist the consumer, parents, residential and day program providers, in carrying out the individual's plan.
1809	Personal Support Services W-125	General	Can include direct assistance with daily living chores, and personal adjustment related supports. Also included are services involving housekeeping and daily meal preparation, and other household services essential to living in a community, along with health related support necessary for the welfare of the individual such as assistance with medication to the extent allowed by State law.

		Adult Mental Retardation	Personal support Service – Assistance with eating, bathing, personal hygiene, activities of daily living. May include assistance with preparation of meals, may also include housekeeping chores as bed making, dusting, vacuuming which are incidental to the care furnished, or which are essential to health and welfare related issues. Personal Support services can be provided in any setting, other than a Residential Support setting, including an employment job site, Providers must meet State standards for this service.
		Children	Personal support Service – Assistance with eating, bathing, personal hygiene, activities of daily living. May include assistance with preparation of meals, may also include housekeeping chores as bed making, dusting, vacuuming which are incidental to the care furnished, or which are essential to health and welfare related issues. Personal Support services can be provided in any setting, other than a Residential Support setting, including an employment job site, Providers must meet State standards for this service.
1810	Physical Therapy Consult W-105	Adult Mental Retardation	Professional services by a Physical Therapist to assist the consumer, parents, residential and day program providers, in carrying out the individual's plan.

1811	Psychological Services Consult W-102	Adult Mental Retardation	Professional services by a Psychologist to assist the consumer, parents, residential and day program providers , in carrying out the individual's plan.
1812	Residential Training Services W-111	General	Individually tailored supports provided by a licensed Assisted Living Facility that assists with acquisition, retention or improvement of skills related to living in the community. Supports include adaptive skill development, assistance with ADL, community inclusion, transportation, social and leisure skill development that support the individual to reside in the most integrated community setting appropriate to his/her needs.
		Adult Mental Retardation	Individual presents with no significant behavior management problems, ADL skills are consistent with development level. Needs little assistance in meeting basic self-help and care related needs. Requires only routine medical monitoring, often will require less than ten hours per week of face to face training or support.

		Children	Individual presents with no significant behavior management problems, ADL skills are consistent with development level. Needs little assistance in meeting basic self-help and care related needs. Requires only routine medical monitoring, often will require less than ten hours per week of face to face training or support.
1813	Residential Training Services W-112	General	same as 1812
		Adult Mental Retardation	May present with occasional behavior issues of limited duration that can include inappropriate social/emotional behavior as well as requiring supervision in meeting basic self care needs. Can have medical/physical needs that require on going monitoring. Person may require as much as twenty five hours per week of direct support.
		Children	May present with occasional behavior issues of limited duration that can include inappropriate social/emotional behavior as well as requiring supervision in meeting basic self care needs. Can have medical/physical needs that require on going monitoring. Person may require as much as twenty five hours per week of direct support.
1814	Residential Training Services W-113	General	same as 1812

		Adult Mental Retardation	Individual may have behavioral management issues of long duration which can include self-injurious, aggressive behavior which can present a threat to self or others but with a low degree of frequency. May require significant assistance in meeting self-care and personal hygiene needs. May require as much as fifty hours per week of direct supervision and support.
		Children	Individual may have behavioral management issues of long duration which can include self-injurious, aggressive behavior which can present a threat to self or others but with a low degree of frequency. May require significant assistance in meeting self-care and personal hygiene needs. May require as much as fifty hours per week of direct supervision and support.
1815	Residential Training Services W-114	Children	same as 1812

		Adult Mental Retardation	May demonstrate substantial serious behavior issue's that can be threatening to ones subsistence, and require intensive supervision. May require that caregiver obtain specialized training to meet consumer 's physical and medical needs, such as feeding techniques, or coordination between various disciplines established within a plan of care. The resident may require constant twenty-four hour, seven day per week supervision.
		Children	May demonstrate substantial serious behavior issue's that can be threatening to ones subsistence, and require intensive supervision. May require that caregiver obtain specialized training to meet consumer 's physical and medical needs, such as feeding techniques, or coordination between various disciplines established within a plan of care. The resident may require constant twenty-four hour, seven day per week supervision.
1816	Residential Training Services W-115	Children	same as 1812
		Adult Mental Retardation	Waiver Boarding Home generally one rate for all residents, cost settled by audit.
		Children	Waiver Boarding Home generally one rate for all residents, cost settled by audit.

1817	Respite Care W-117	Adult Mental Retardation	temporary care provided for the recipient, which allows personal time to the caregiver of services. The recipient must be considered to be residing in his/her natural home.
1818	Speech Therapy Consult W-103	Adult Mental Retardation	Professional services by a Speech Therapist to assist the consumer, parents, residential and day program providers, in carrying out the individual's plan.
1819	Supported Employment W-126	Adult Mental Retardation	Employment at the fair, prevailing wage for persons for whom competitive employment would be unlikely absent the provision of appropriate supports. Includes supervision, training and transportation required as a result of the recipient's disability.
1820	Transportation W-116	Adult Mental Retardation	services to enable individuals served on the waiver to gain access to waiver and other community resources specified by the plan of care
1821	Waivered Boarding Homes	Adult Mental Retardation					